

PRESENTS THE FALL 2017 SCHOLAR SYMPOSIA SERIES ON FRIDAY, OCTOBER 13, 2017 AT 6:30PM IN THE CATHEDRAL

FEATURING: DR. JOSEPH E. MARSHALL, JR. MAC ARTHUR AWARD-WINNING AUTHOR

Scholar Symposia, Friday, October 13, 2017 at Trinity Episcopal Cathedral in Mid-Town Sacramento

Violence is a Public Health Epidemic. There is an inoculation, a prescription that can cure the Disease of Violence. Dr. Joseph E. Marshall, Jr. is author of Street Soldier: One Man's Struggle to Save a Generation, One Life at a Time and pioneer in a NEW Public Health Model of violence prevention and intervention that includes weekly family group meetings, academic rehabilitation, and college scholarships.

He will discuss the risk factors associated with violent behavior in our youth.

- Why do youth harm themselves and others when they are angry,
fearful or hurting?
- How do you help youth with their anger, fear and pain?
- How is it possible to live a violence-free life and have violence-free communities?
- How can we make our schools safe and increase academic achievement?
- Does the music and media influence violence?

Dr. Marshall, a trustee emeritus of the University of San Francisco and a member of the San Francisco Police Commission. He hosts the live radio talk-show "Street Soldiers," Sundays at 11:00pm from the San Francisco studios of KMEL 106.5 FM.

Join us as we explore the "What, Why, and How" of eliminating violence and reducing conflict from our lives and our communities through the model of public health. For more
