Guide for using Facebook Live – join us online at 9 a.m. for worship

Here’s a simple guide to using Facebook Live ... even without a Facebook account. We will use Facebook Live to stream services each Sunday at 9 a.m. until such time as we can meet in person again for Holy Eucharist.

Step 1: Go to https://www.facebook.com/Trinity.Cathedral.Sacramento/

Step 2: Once you are there, ignore any boxes that urge you to log in or sign up. If you have the option to close such a box by clicking "Not Now," go ahead and do that.

Step 3: Scroll down the page, past the information-sharing sections (photos, videos, etc.) to the "Posts" section.

Step 4: The live video will appear in the "Posts" section. NOTE: If you arrive there before the live feed has started, you may have to refresh your browser once the video has begun.

Step 5: If you don't hear any audio, click on the "horn" in the video post to turn the sound on.

Step 6: Click on the video in the post (where the image is) to watch the live video in a larger window.

Those who are watching without a Facebook account will not be able to make comments or otherwise interact with the video. Those with an account can "like," add comments, etc., while the video is playing.

Many thanks to the Rev. Nic Mather, rector of St. Stephen’s in Longview, WA, for this handy-dandy guide, and for Episcopal Communicators for posting it.
